

Mat Fisher Returns to Luxor CRM as New Chief Technology Officer

After a 7-year leave, Mat Fisher has returned to Luxor CRM, an innovative web-based CRM vendor, as their new Chief Technology Officer.

As the co-founder and lead developer of Luxor CRM's first version, Mat Fisher brings over 15 years' experience in the IT industry to the company's software development team. He left Luxor CRM in 2003 and spent several years abroad working on large-scale international projects for a range of corporate and government clients. He was the lead architect behind the Environment for Virtualized Evidence (EVE), a world first and one of the New Zealand Police's most successful innovations.

His enthusiastic approach to IT in combination with his extensive knowledge and expertise will elevate Luxor CRM's flagship product to new heights. The entire team at Luxor CRM is excited to bring Mat aboard in time for their highly anticipated launch of Version 3.
